

AN OAK TREE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21ST, 2010

AT THIS PERFORMANCE THE ROLE
OF THE FATHER WILL BE PLAYED BY

STU LEVIN

Stu Levin has appeared in over 300 plays and directed 100 more. He has appeared in films and on TV in everything from to “Doogie Howser” to “Boston Legal.” He does vocal characterizations for video games, the “Avatar” TV show, commercials and Books-on-Tape.”

Stu was the first Film Reviewer on “Entertainment Tonight” and had similar posts on other syndicated and local TV shows.

He was a TV cameraman for several years, worked as a stage hand, had two of his own radio shows and hosted a weekly TV show. He penned a weekly newspaper column, owned a “star-system” theatre, wrote and directed two “Emmy” nominated documentaries, ran theatre schools for young actors, taught at UCLA and other universities, raised a family and never misses a monthly mortgage payment.

Stu has also been teaching Film History, Acting and Voice Over at the American Music and Dramatic Academy in Hollywood for the past six years.